ALEXANDRIA SWEATER WITH MARY

The latest design from Connie Chang Chinchio, this sweater is knit seamlessly from the bottom up and the set-in sleeves are picked up from the armholes. The pattern has lovely details, including a slipped stitch faux side seam and i-cord edging on the front and yoke. And the seamless technique results in a sweater that really does look - and fit! - like it's seamed! Knit in a light worsted weight yarn (Mary is knitting her sample in Cascade Venezia Worsted), it can truly be a year-round sweater here.

$60 for a 4-week session
